Aletheia (Ah-LEE-thee-uh)

spirit of truth; state of unconcealedness

Bio

Dinah Snow and Sierra Samuel are Aletheia Rising. They love the “unconcealedness” of a cappella singing with a dash of acoustic instruments (Sierra on guitar; Dinah on rhythm). The duo brings an infusion of folk, gospel, roots, pop, rock, and traditional music influences from around the world, carefully choosing to write and share socially, emotionally, and environmentally intelligent lyrics. With seamless harmonies, their performances stir the soul and wake up the spirit. The synergy that is created through this musical connection is contagious and joyful to witness!

Dinah grew up immersed in folk, roots, blues, rock, and world music. From the age of 8 she spent hours dissecting the complex harmonies of Eastern European folk songs, while also belting it out to Heart. Dinah is a Certified Vocal Coach of the 6 Point Vocal WAV Method® and Vocal Yoga Method® and offers workshops, lessons, and classes in person and online. She has performed at conferences, spiritual centers, weddings, memorials and for recording projects.

Sierra is a singer/songwriter and guitarist who draws from world music, new age, folk, blues, gospel, and jazz. She studied Music Technology and Composition at Evergreen State College. She was a singer in the Boulder Kirtan and still enjoys the bliss of ecstatic chanting. Sierra has performed at conferences, festivals, spiritual centers, yoga centers, and local venues.
